Tankoa: Singolare and Spirit in Monaco

Two premieres express Tankoa's boutique approach: the 45-metre Singolare and 52-metre full-custom Spirit. Cassetta and Debora Aguiar shape the former; Vitruvius Yacht Design and FM Architettura the latter. Wellness, outdoor living and owner-led design connect both projects.

Manari 52: a bespoke chase boat

The 16-metre Manari 52 is customised to match its future mother ship's livery and detailing. Folding terraces, a wet bar and a reconfigured layout extend its role beyond transfers. The article's reference to an August launch as still future is chronologically inconsistent.

METHODOLOGY AND SOURCES

WordPress API census available on 12 October 2026, covering publication dates from 1 to 30 September. All 14 English-edition articles are included from a 38-post multilingual corpus. GX42 appears only in Italian in this corpus and is excluded; French and Italian versions are not counted as English articles.

Summaries are based on the English articles, not translated from the Italian roundup. Dates and links refer to English sources. Figures and performance claims are attributed to the magazine, not independently verified. Images include project visualisations.

Chronology caveats: Manari describes an August launch as future; SIMENA still announces an upcoming opening-morning award ceremony despite its 27 September publication date. Inclusion follows API dates, without validating those passages. Some articles credit press offices or agencies.
