Leo Messi joins the Sunreef family with an order of a new ULTIMA 88, currently under construction at the company's state-of-the-art shipyard in the United Arab Emirates.

One of the world's most recognized athletes has chosen a luxury Sunreef catamaran for his fleet, MIM Ocean, based in the Balearic Islands. The yacht will offer guests an exclusive experience at sea, designed for privacy and relaxation away from prying eyes.

On board, four guest cabins provide intimate accommodations for family and friends, while the full-beam owner's suite offers a luxurious, peaceful retreat. Sunreef Yachts' signature Ocean Lounge brings guests closer to the water, providing the perfect setting for swimming, water sports, and relaxation with uninterrupted ocean views.

A dedicated jet ski garage keeps water toys close at hand, while spacious outdoor lounge areas and a generous flybridge provide the perfect settings for relaxation, fitness, and time spent under the open sky. With its sleek design and twin 1,000-hp engines, Leo Messi's ULTIMA 88 combines speed with exceptional maneuverability.

The ULTIMA 88 embodies Sunreef Yachts' contemporary life at sea: fluid, spacious, and deeply connected to the ocean. Every detail is designed to make life simpler and more intuitive, with open spaces that adapt seamlessly to every moment.

For Francis Lapp, Founder and CEO of Sunreef Yachts, welcoming Leo Messi into the House of Sunreef reflects a shared vision of what true luxury means today.

> “Leo Messi represents an extraordinary level of excellence, but what makes this new chapter especially meaningful to us is what happens away from the spotlight. At Sunreef Yachts, we believe that true luxury is the freedom to choose how you spend your time, surrounded by the people who matter most. The sea offers this freedom in its purest form. We are incredibly proud to welcome Leo Messi and his family to the House of Sunreef”.

For Leo Messi, time spent at sea is already an integral part of family life. Choosing the ULTIMA 88 turns this passion into a personal sanctuary: a place to leave the shore behind, enjoy unhurried days, and decide together where the next day will take them. The sea offers a unique kind of privacy, found nowhere else: a secluded anchorage, an open flybridge in the early morning, and hours shaped by the family’s desire for another swim rather than by a schedule.

> “It’s a real pleasure to become part of the Sunreef family. My family and I have always loved spending time at sea whenever we get the chance. Sunreef yachts have the style and features I truly appreciate, and they’re a perfect fit for what I’m looking for. I can’t wait to experience the ULTIMA 88 and enjoy it with my family“.
